

Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, March 28, '60.

$10 Reward.

If it will pay the expenses of the experiments, we will offer a reward of $10 to the author or inventors of the discovery of the cause of the sudden deaths of city salesmen.

MCGRAW, THOMAS & HILL,
Persons.

We are very pleased to meet yesterday in the Hotel Souix at this city.

ELIAS PETERSON.—W. Williams, alias Dr. Iliss, is to be put open trial at the criminal court this morning on the charge of attempting to murder his wife.

AGENCE.—Mr. Kelly's agency for safe, seals, and other useful accessories to the merchant's business, is established at No. 65 Front Street.

THE WEATHER.—Bright sunlight, with a cold, biting wind yesterday, looked like the weather of winter, but the thermometer was universal in the streets.

FIRE GUARANTY.—At the criminal court yesterday, Mr. Goodrich was found guilty of picking the pocket of Mr. Birrell at the Chancery depts. He was sentenced to a month's imprisonment, to be suspended.

The FIRE on ELLIOTT STREET.—We learn that the fire on Elliott Street on Monday night, instead of consuming a stable or an out-building, as was reported in the papers, burned down the house of a widow lady and three children.

SCHOOLING MURDER.—A flat-top, through a telegraphic despatch received by Mr. Todd, of the firm of Todd & Goyer, we learn that Mr. A. C. Moore, a teacher, had been murdered at his schoolroom in Vickburg recently, and the body robbed of some $3000. A negro woman, who was with him at the time, was also killed. Mr. Moore, residing for some time past in this city, had made a name for himself as a man of great talents. He leaves a wife and four children.

NOR DEAN.—It is thought that the man who was shot by young Briffell at Holly Springs on Monday was still living yesterday. The large number who have witnessed her incomparable acting during her long engagement, will allow the public to form a correct estimate of what may be made of her.

The old Mrs. Parker, of the Arkansas, Mrs. S. H. Parker, of the Arkansas, Mrs. Parker, and Mrs. W. C. Parker, of the Ark., were present at the opening of the Ark. theater last night, with Misses Parker.

The Ark. theater was opened by Mr. Parker, who has engaged the services of Mr. Parker, an architect, to build a new building, which will contain a large hall, a stage, and a gallery.

The Ark. theater was opened by Mr. Parker.
